DAILY YEOMAN
FOR THE

SESSION OF THE LEGISLATURE.

The FRANKFORT YEOMAN will be issued daily during the session of the Legislature, which will commence on the first Monday in September. Able reporters will be employed in each House, and accurate reports of proceedings published daily. The ensuing session will be one of transcendent importance, its action involving the future external relations of the State, and that question, in turn, perhaps, involving the mighty issue of peace or war within the Commonwealth. The Yeoman, therefore, will be the most convenient and useful organ of communication between the members of the Legislature and their constituents. May we not therefore confidently anticipate a large accession to our subscription list? A little effort on the part of our friends will greatly strengthen our hands in this critical emergency; and now, more than ever, should the friends of States Rights rally to the support of their true and faithful organs. It is but a trifle to each subscriber, but the aggregate is indispensable to the publishers, to enable them to continue the issue of a vigorous and dauntless paper in defense of the sacred cause of Southern Rights, imperilled by the persistent aggressions of Northern sectional fanaticism and hatred, and attempted to be struck down by the usurpations of a Military Dictator.

The DAILY YEOMAN for the session will be $1 50. Any person procuring us five subscribers, and forwarding the money, shall have the sixth copy for his trouble.

The TRI-WEEKLY YEOMAN is published at $4 per year. The Session Daily will be sent to all the Tri-Weekly subscribers, with 50 cents additional charge. Any person procuring us five subscribers to the Tri-Weekly, and forwarding us the money, shall have the sixth copy for his trouble.

The WEEKLY YEOMAN will be furnished to subscribers during the session of the Legislature, for 50 cents; and for a year, including the session, for $2 00. Persons procuring five subscribers to the session weekly, or yearly weekly, and forwarding the money to us, shall receive the sixth copy free of charge.

Remittances may be made by mail at our risk.

An Apology.
We kept our columns open until a late hour last evening, expecting the organization of the Senate would enable us to publish the Governor's message. Disappointed in that expectation, at a late hour we could only present what the reader has before him.

To SUBSCRIBERS.—As all your names and credit-types are kept standing in pages of type, which type we correct by regularly posting all your remittances and orders therein, it becomes true that these pages of type are the pages of our ledger! To address your papers, we take an impression from our metal ledger—cut its columns apart—gum their ends together—reel the web into the Mailing Machine, which as it feeds out the web, gums it—cuts off each subscriber's share—and fastens it on his paper; rendering all old forms of accounts and receipts unnecessary and misunderstandings impossible, as you get a printed receipt or statement of your account with each paper. This patent ledger, metallic though it be, will be easily kept posted, provided you all pay, so as never to allow current time to overtake your credit-dates.

The Lexington Observer says the Government camp in Garrard county is simply for instruction. The Louisville Journal says it is only for defense. The Republican papers North say it is a preparatory step for the invasion of Tennessee. It is not unlikely that the movement comprehends all these purposes, and more.

The following is from the Cincinnati Enquirer:
Who HAS CONFIDENCE IN THE ADMINISTRATION?—The Administration at Washington seems to inspire very few of its political friends with a generous confidence in its ability, judgment, or honesty.

The Republican presses dictate the military policy and movements, as if neither the Commander-in-Chief, the Lieutenant-General, or anybody else at Washington, understood anything about their business, and especially about war.

Petitions are in circulation among the people, receiving thousands of signatures, requesting the President to remove Cameron and Welles from his Cabinet—the one for his alleged want of honesty, and the other for his ineptitude.

Now we have bankers sending a committee to Washington to dictate to the President a certain line of policy, as a condition precedent to their taking any more of the public loan.

The Philadelphia Inquirer of the 30th, has the following estimate of the Confederate forces in Virginia. It is probably exaggerated, with the view of hurrying up Federal reinforcements:

POSITION OF THE ENEMY.
It is more than likely that in the course of the next two days there will be some important military movements in the immediate vicinity of Washington. It will be interesting, therefore, to know the exact position of the enemy's forces. With the aid of the maps of the vicinity of Washington heretofore published in the Inquirer, the reader will be able to follow our description. It must be borne in mind that it is now five weeks since the defeat of our army at Bull Run; that defeat has had an immediate effect on the enthusiasm of the whole South; that it has roused the enthusiasm of the South to a higher pitch than ever; that, during the last five weeks, troops have been pouring into Virginia from all the other Southern States; that the Confederates have now in arms, according to their own accounts, forces distributed about as follows:

No. of Men.
Burgess's force west of Washington..... 20,000
Magruder's force at Aquia Creek and Fredricksburg..... 20,000
Batteries at Potomac, York, James and Rappahannock rivers..... 12,000
At Yorktown..... 12,000
At Norfolk and Portsmouth..... 10,000
At Richmond..... 5,000
Forces of Generals Lee and Floyd in Western Virginia..... 10,000
At Lynchburg (Camp of Instruction)..... 10,000
Total..... 139,000

The disposition of the forces in the immediate vicinity of Washington is apparently in a state of great excitement. The forces near the Chain Bridge and Shooter's Hill, and the crescent near Ball's and Bailey's Cross Roads. There are strong detachments at Falls Church, at Vienna, at Fairfax, at Centerville, and at Germantown. The great Parrot gun, captured by the enemy at Ball Run, has been brought up by them to Bailey's Cross Roads, and was placed in position there yesterday, behind their entrenchments. It is not believed, however, that these preparations indicate any design of an immediate attack on Washington, but only a closer approach to it on all sides, in order to be ready for an attack if that measure is finally decided on.

AFFAIRS IN WESTERN VIRGINIA.
It is to be feared that Gen. Rosecrans has not accomplished what the Government expected from him. Not from any want of skill or generosity on his part, but owing to the want of sufficient number of troops. The indications now are, that unless he is speedily and largely reinforced, he, and all the Federal troops now there, will be driven out of Western Virginia. If this does take place, the mischief will be only begun. The expulsion of the Federal troops will be followed by the expulsion of the members of the Legislature of the new State of Kanawha or Western Virginia, by that of the Governor of the new State, and probably by the imposition of very heavy burdens upon all the Union people of that part of the country. The Rebels will then seize upon the western part of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad from Parkersburg to Cumberland, and fortify all the important points in Western Virginia. If they do this, it will protect the war indefinitely. That they are energetically moving in that direction will be evident from the following facts:

Immediately after the battle of Bull Run, Gen. Lee was sent by the Confederate War Department on a secret expedition into Western Virginia. He passed through Gordonsville, Charlottesville, Staunton, and Covington. At each of these places he found detachments of troops which had been sent there and placed under his orders, so that on leaving Covington he found himself at the head of a well-appointed force of forty thousand men. With this army he crossed the Allegheny Mountains, rested and refreshed his men at Lewisburg, crossed the Flat Top Mountains, and encamped on the banks of the Gauley river. Here he spent some days in drilling and moderately exercising his men and getting them accustomed to the maneuvers of brigades and field evolutions.

In the meantime, Gen. Floyd (John B. Floyd, late Secretary of War), with a column of 15,000 troops, raised in the southwestern counties of Virginia, had been moving in the same direction. On the 10th of August, he was at Newbern, on the line of the Great Southern Railroad, where he finished the organization of his division, and started on his way to the North. On the 12th his column was at Paris; on the 15th, at Union, in Monroe county, and on the 17th, at Lewisburg, in Greenbrier county. From that point he crossed over the Flat Top Mountains, by the same route taken a few days afterwards by Gen. Lee's army, and proceeding to a spot near the Gauley Bridge, awaited the arrival of Gen. Lee. When their forces on the 22nd inst., it was at Newbern, that the two Generals proceeded along the Gauley river, crossed that stream, attacked Col. Tyler at Summersville, and defeated him with heavy loss on the 20th.

We have no further data as to the movements of these Rebel Generals. But it is easy to see that they have immediately followed up this slight success by a further advance into the bowels of the land. It is more than probable that before this time both General Lee and Gen. Jackson have advanced upon Gen. Rosecrans upon one side, while Gen. Lee and Gen. Floyd have attacked him upon the other.

TO EXPECT TO HOLD FIFTEEN STATES IN THE UNION BY FORCE IS PREPOSTEROUS. THEREFORE OF A CIVIL WAR ACCOMPANIED BY THE MOST HORRIBLE AND UNPARALLELED ATROCITIES TO THE MOST UNDESIRABLE END, IS TO EXPECT TO HOLD FIFTEEN STATES BY FORCE IS PREPOSTEROUS. IT IS TO EXPECT TO HOLD FIFTEEN STATES BY FORCE IS PREPOSTEROUS. IT IS TO EXPECT TO HOLD FIFTEEN STATES BY FORCE IS PREPOSTEROUS.

The Lexington Observer says the Government camp in Garrard county is simply for instruction. The Louisville Journal says it is only for defense. The Republican papers North say it is a preparatory step for the invasion of Tennessee. It is not unlikely that the movement comprehends all these purposes, and more.

The following is from the Cincinnati Enquirer:

Now we have bankers sending a committee to Washington to dictate to the President a certain line of policy, as a condition precedent to their taking any more of the public loan.

There are the Abolitionists, who are denouncing that the President issue a proclamation proclaiming the freedom of the slaves, and telling him that success cannot attend our arms until that is done.

[Special Dispatch to the Courier.]
NASHVILLE, Sept. 2, 1861.
Our special dispatches from Richmond of to-day say Congress passed a retaliatory law, and it has been approved by the President. It is retrospective in its operation to the 21st of May, and seizes upon all the property owned by enemies in the Confederate States, except stocks, Confederate and State. It differs from a confiscation bill, only in holding the property of enemies for particular ends, subject to claims for indemnity and the future disposition of the Government. It is estimated by members of Congress that property to the amount of three hundred million dollars will be subject to the provisions of this bill, fifty million of which is in the city of New Orleans alone. It is made the duty of every citizen to give information to agents controlling the property of enemies, and a failure to give such information subjects parties to a fine of five thousand dollars and imprisonment one month.

Each Confederate judge is authorized to appoint a receiver in each section of his district. The President is authorized to appoint three Commissioners to hold a court at the seat of Government, to hear and adjudicate claims under this act. Col. Daniel Ruggles is promoted to Brigadier-General, and assigned duty at Pensacola. Congress adopted a resolution providing for supplying troops with fresh bread and provisions, and allowing rations to chaplains.
